BOY AERONAUT DROWNS WHEN HIS BALLOON PLUNGES TO RIVER

for Parachute Drop under Failed and He Drifted Over Water as He Waited.

ALTON, Ill., May 28.-Robert Cow

A crowd which stood on the bluffs of Alton witnessed the accident. As the balloon ascended Cowan was lingin gto a trapese which hung from the parachute. When he had reached a height of five hundred feet Cowan's foster father, who remained on the ground, was to fire a revolve but the crew falled to find young Cowan, who was clinging to the trapess when he struck the water.

A manifestly sincere plea to the commission to forage its purpose to quis Mr. Rochefeller, on the ground that at his country place in Stockbridge, Mass.

There is apparently reason to believe that the Department of Justice may undertake to ignere the usual procedure and custom relating to immunity. The Attorney-General himmenity. The Attorney-Gener ing, to push the indictment against Ms.

Melien for the Grand Trunk offense.

The Attorney-General, who went over to New York late yesterday, would not make any statement of his plans regarding either Mr. Melien or any other person connected with the New Haven scandal. There is excellent reason to believe that Mr. McReyneith has not arrived at any decision remarks has not arrived at any decision regard-ing the ultimate plane of his department, as far as the New Haven matter testimony, is undecided whether it will continue its probe Tuesday, to which day it adjourned. It has under consideration two plans. One is to present at once to the Senate, which or-dered the inquiry, a report of its work and direct the attention of that body to the value of the testimony taken by it to the Department of Justice. This will permit the Senate speedily to provide legislation to prevent a recurrence of the corrupt and wasteful practices on the part of New Haven directors disclosed by Mr. Mellen and

With the facts revealed by Mr. Melien as to the manner in which the money of New Haven stockholders AND MAKES HIS ESCAPE was dumped into trollers, steamships and outside ventures that helped break the financial back of the great New England financial system, it is the opinion of some members of the Commission that Mr. McReynolds will find justification for both immediate oriminal and civil proceedings.

His protest against the swearing as witnesses of New Haven directors William Recipitalion, George F. Baker,
